If you visit the HOBİ museum in Scottsdale, it is located on the 2nd floor of the building. It’s FREE and you should see what the House of Broadcasting means to Arizona.

House of Broadcasting (HOBİ) is proud to be celebrating its sixteenth year of operation. It began in 1997, with financial support from the Phoenix Chapter of American Women in Radio and Television and the Arizona Broadcasters Association. It has prospered and grown, thanks to the support of television and radio stations, personal and industry contributions. In 2012, The House of Broadcasting (HOBİ) was awarded The Prestigious Governor’s Award by the Rocky Mountain Southwest Chapter of National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences. The House of Broadcasting, Inc. is a 501c3 non-profit organization dedicated to educating the public and preserving and celebrating the history, personalities and paraphernalia of radio and television in Arizona. It is one of only five museums in the country dedicated to the broadcast industry. The four others are in Los Angeles, New York, Chicago and Washington D. C.
