

Media Contact: 7.10.2013

Linda Whitlow
602-526-1680 - lawhitlow09@hotmail.com

Mary Morrison
602-944-1997 – pschu@q.com

MEDIA ALERT

Who: House of Broadcasting (HOB) presents HOB's Meet and Greet, a guest speaker series featuring media personalities and others who have made significant contributions within their industry. The speaker engagements feature a lively evening of conversation, wine & cheese and a tour of the renowned House of Broadcasting Museum.

What: We are pleased to welcome Mr. John Iannarelli, Assistant Special Agent in Charge of the Phoenix Division, the FBI's number two position for the State of Arizona. Mr. Iannarelli is a highly sought after speaker, having presented on behalf of the FBI at numerous national and international gatherings, to include Fortune 500 companies, United States and international law enforcement agencies, and to the Vatican in Italy. Mr. Iannarelli's most recent book WHY TEENS FAIL AND WHAT TO FIX is a parent guide to protect children from internet predators and other dangers. Mr. Iannarelli will talk about the FBI and its relationship with the media as well as the right questions to ask.

Where: House of Broadcasting, 7150 East 5th Avenue, Floor 2, Scottsdale, Az.

When: November 14, 2013 - Thursday, 5:30pm – 7:00pm.

Cost: FREE – Reservations at 602-944-1997.

For more information, see houseofbroadcasting.com - facebook.com/houseofbroadcasting

About House of Broadcasting

House of Broadcasting (HOB) is proud to be celebrating its sixteenth year of operation. It began in 1997, with financial support from the Phoenix Chapter of American Women in Radio and Television and the Arizona Broadcasters Association. It has prospered and grown, thanks to the support of television and radio stations, personal and industry contributions. In 2012, The House of Broadcasting (HOB) was awarded The Prestigious Governor's Award by the Rocky Mountain Southwest Chapter of National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences. The House of Broadcasting, Inc. is a 501c3 non-profit organization dedicated to educating the public and preserving and celebrating the history, personalities and paraphernalia of radio and television in Arizona. It is one of only five museums in the country dedicated to the broadcast industry. The four others are in Los Angeles, New York, Chicago and Washington D. C. See www.houseofbroadcasting.com and www.facebook.com/houseofbroadcasting